REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. Claims 1-27 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Independent claim 1 recites a heat reflective coated article comprising a heat reflective layer component and a coated component comprising a substrate having an ionic charge coated with a coating having essentially the same ionic charge where said coating consists essentially of a filler material and a binder material and wherein said binder material bonds the filler material together and to the substrate and wherein said coating does not bleed through said substrate.

The claims of the instant application were rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over US. Patent 5,965,257, to Ahluwalia, and under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over U.S. Patent No. 5,965,257 and U.S. Patent No. US 6,586,353 B1.

The rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over US. Patent 5,965,257, to Ahluwalia, has been overcome by disqualifying the Ahluwalia reference by amending the claim for priority (such that the instant application is now a continuation-in-part of 09/663,255, now US Patent 6,586,353 B, which claims priority to 60/168,057, filed on November 30, 1999), amending the inventorship to add Mr. Ahluwalia, and by providing a Declaration from Mr. Ahluwalia stating that he is the inventor of the material disclosed in the Ahluwalia reference and that the Ahluwalia reference is currently owned by the same party.

Furthermore, the rejections of the instant claims under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over U.S. Patent No. 5,965,257 and U.S. Patent No. US 6,586,353 B1 have been overcome by the filing of terminal disclaimers which disclaim the terminal portion of any patent granted on this application which would extend beyond the expiration date of US Patent 5,965,257 and the expiration date of U.S. Patent No. US 6,586,353 B1

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
